El Palauet

El Palauet, also known as Casa Bonaventura-Ferrer (1906), is one of the most unique modernist buildings in Barcelona. Located on Paseo de Gracia, above Av. Diagonal, it has been part of Barcelona's heritage since 1978.

It has 6 suites and 10 unique spaces where delicacy, detail and authenticity take precedence; all this in the centre of Barcelona, leaving no one who visits it indifferent.

We adapt to your needs, we propose new formulas for events or even the possibility of a complete full privatisation of the entire Palauet.

Noble Floor

This is the first floor of El Palauet. Its grand modernist oak staircase (1906), covered with a stained glass vault, is a real eye-catcher. It is a large multi-purpose space that adapts to the needs of any event thanks to its advanced technology.

Grand Hall

Modernist walls, staircase with pulpit, balconies and carved oak pieces are the result of a work in cabinetmaking that generates a visual impact beyond the ordinary.

Passeig de Gràcia

Resembling a stained-glass window, this lounge, with a laminated wooden ceiling, has direct views of Paseo de Gracia. A perfect space for a reception or a cocktail, where the main protagonist is, without a doubt, the natural light.

Conservatorio

With laminated ceilings and stained glass windows, with or without furniture, this Hall creates a versatile and particularly cosy atmosphere.

A cosy lounge that stands out for its luminosity thanks to its glass dome and a lamp with fifteen thousand Bohemian crystals, giving access to the terrace on the first floor, creating an unrepeatable atmosphere.

Vitralls & Terrace

It faces the street Riera de Sant Miguel, creating an intimate atmosphere. This space is one of the best-kept secrets of El Palauet, thanks to the trencadís and its curved lines with benches that remind us of Gaudí's work. It also has access to the terrace on the same floor. Without a doubt, at sunset, the show is about to begin.
